

The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 18. 1702.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 19.

Ratisbon, Dec. 7.

LAST Friday the Envoy of the Elector of Mentz, as Chancellor of the Empire, represented to the College of Electors, that seeing they had agreed by the Resolution of the 30th of September, to enter into the Grand Alliance with England, Holland, and the other Porentates, against the King of France and the Duke of Anjou; it remain'd only for them to agree on the manner to proceed on that Subject; and that the Ministers of England and Holland should be desir'd to send for full Powers and Instructions to negotiate that Affair. But they deferr'd their Deliberations on this Matter to another time. The Elector of Bavaria insisting on a speedy Answer from this City touching the Offer he made not to molest it, provided they would promise him not to receive a Garrison of foreign Troops, it was resolv'd on Monday last in the 3 Colleges to Petition the Emperor not to put a Garrison into this Town, seeing all places where Diets are held, are us'd to be exempted from quartering Troops. The same day the Envoy of the Elector of Mentz deliver'd this Resolution to the Cardinal de Lamberg the Emperor's chief Commissioner, desiring it might be dispatch'd away immediately to His Imperial Majesty by an Express. And at the same time represented to him by word of Mouth, in the Name of all the other Deputies of the Diet, that if their Request should be deny'd, and any Troops sent into this Town, they would break up the Assembly; to the End his Eminency might acquaint the Emperor with this also. On the same day the Cardinal receiv'd from Vienna and deliver'd into the 3 Colleges, the Emperor's Approbation of the Resolution taken by the Diet on the 17th of November, to augment the Forces of the Empire to 120000 Men.

Vienna, Dec. 2. The Czar of Muscovy's Son is expected shortly in this City, Count Staremberg's House, being fitted up for his Reception; 'tis said he will tarry here some time. The Emperor's Council intend to proceed against the Elector of Bavaria, in case he reject the last offers that were made to him, as they have done against the Duke of Mantua, whom they put under the Ban of the Empire. A certain Person, Steward to a Neapolitan Prince who is intirely in the Interest of the House of Austria, has been seiz'd in this City, and sent Prisoner to the Castle of Spielberg in Moravia, for holding Correspondence with the Enemies of His Imperial Majesty.

Esslingen, Dec. 7. We have Advice by the way of Ottingen, That the Elector of Bavaria is recover'd of his late Indisposition; That he left Donawert on Monday last to go and pass the Winter at Ingolstadt, one of his Frontier Towns; That the Electress was with him, as also the Envoys of France and Savoy, all in one Coach. The Imperial Troops that are cantoned in the Black Forrest, are order'd to hold themselves ready to march on the first notice; 'tis believ'd they are to enter upon Action against the Elector of Bavaria; 'Tis reported likewise, That General Palfi, who is posted in Nordlingen with part of his Hussars, has put several Baillages in the Neighbourhood of that place, which hold of the Elector of Bavaria, under Contribution; and that they have already carried him in a great quantity of Forrage for a Magazine which he is laying up in Nordlingen, to save themselves from Military Execution.
